Muzrai Secretary's Remarks.

I have seen the temple. It has been great ly improved and kept in good condition through the exertions of one Jinniah, Dharmadarsi. The estimates submitted are for three different works as follows:-

1. Compound Wall . . . . . ₹849/-

2. Outhouses, also including the enlargement of the kitchen, ,710/-

& 3. Repairing the main temple. . ,,216/-.

Of these, I think the first two items are comparatively luxuries and need not be immediately sanctioned from the State Grant, which has already become reduced to ₹6,000/-. The temple being situated outside the town, a live hedge would seem sufficient in the place of the compound wall proposed. The last item of ₹216 which is intended for the improvement of the main temple, may, I think, be sanctioned from the State Grant.

Submitted to the II Councillor.
